GREAT BRIDGE IS OPENED

New York's $20,000,000 Structure Across East River.

BIG CROWD WAS PRESENT

Thousands of Automobiles Awaited Chance to Cross the Bridge After Mayor McClellan—It's Daily Capacity Is 250,000 Persons.

New York, March 31.—Amid the cheering of thousands, the tooting of automobiles and the blowing of factory whistles, the new Queensborough bridge was opened to the public by Mayor McClellan.

It seemed as if every owner of an auto for miles around was on hand to be among the first to cross the new $20,000,000 span. It is no exaggeration to say that there were thousands of machines at either end when the mayor and others of the official party arrived to make the trip across.

Mayor McClellan and Bridge Commissioner Stevenson stopped and bought tickets at the tollgate. The mayor got No. 1 and Mr. Stevenson No. 2.

Halfway across the structure the mayor was stopped by a fife and drum corps escorting a party of veterans from Queens county. The mayor saluted them and his machine ran slowly, so that his escort could accompany him across the bridge.

Here are some figures, showing that in many respects the Queensborough bridge is the greatest of the four structures spanning the East river.

Main dimensions: Total length of bridge, including approaches, 7424 feet; length of bridge proper, 3724 feet, 6 inches; clear height above mean high water, 135 feet; height of towers above bottom chord, 185 feet; approximate dead load, steel paving, etc., 120,000,000 pounds.

Daily capacity, cars and promenade, 215,000 persons.

Total cost, including approaches, $20,000,000.

Location: From East Fifty-ninth street, Manhattan, across East river and Blackwell's island, to Long Island City.

Type of bridge, cantilever.

Bridge contains four trolley tracks, two elevated railroad tracks, two floors, a roadway fifty-three feet wire, and two footwalks, each sixteen feet wide.

When the New York and Brooklyn bridge was completed in 1883 it was the longest suspension bridge in the world. The formal opening of the bridge was attended by a disaster. Thousands of persons fought to get a place upon the structure, and the crush was so great that a number of eager sightseers were killed and hundreds injured.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ANNUAL CONCLAVE

Elaborate Programme Being Arranged by the Philadelphia Commanderies for the Entertainment of the Members of Constans Commandery of Bellefonte.

Arrangements for the fifty-sixth annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, to be held in Philadelphia on May 24, 25, and 26, 1909, are now practically completed, and every indication points to the Conclave being the largest in the history of Pennsylvania. Many visiting commanderies from New York, New Jersey, Maryland and other states have accepted invitations to participate in the three days' festivities. On Monday evening there will be between twenty and thirty receptions given by leading commanderies in the central part of the city, and on the afternoon of that day there will be a number of specially conducted sightseeing tours to different parts of the city and parks.

The grand parade of the Knights on Tuesday morning will begin at 10 o'clock and more than 5,000-uniformed Templars with probably 100 bands of music, will be in the column. On the countermarch on Broad street, there will be a unique massing of the banners, the bands of music, the Past Commanders and the Sir Knights, the latter forming in solid formation a large sized cross as they pass in review before the grand officers to the music of "Onward, Christian Soldiers." For the parade, the ladies accompanying the Knights Templar from different parts of the State and elsewhere, will be given special grand stand seats on Broad street. Following the parade, the Grand Commandery will hold its first session, and in the evening there will be a grand reception and ball in the armory of the 2nd Regiment, in which close upon ten thousand people will probably participate.

Wednesday will be devoted to the meeting and annual election of the Grand Commandery, special steamboat rides to leading points of interest on the Delaware, including stops at Disston's saw works, the New York Shipbuilding Company's plant and League Island Navy Yard, where the visitors will be able to board five of the worlds-encircling battleships. On Tuesday afternoon, immediately following the parade, several hundred automobiles will take all the visiting ladies to Fairmount Park, and again on Wednesday there will be a number of special historic sight-seeing tours, Germantown Commandery, located in that historic neighborhood, will entertain all visitors who desire to see the scene of the Battle of Germantown and other historical points.

The conclave will be brought to a close on Wednesday evening with the installation ceremonies in the Academy of Music. From the beginning of the conclave until its close there will not be a single idle moment for any of the visitors and by reason of the number of responses received by the general committee from out-of-town Commanderies, this Conclave will be the largest held in Pennsylvania. President William H. Taft has been invited to attend the grand ball and review the parade, as well as have a number of the army and navy officers, and leading officials at Washington. Governor Stuart, a member of Philadelphia Commandery, as well as state and city officers, will also take a leading part in the week's festivities. The city itself will be gayly decorated for that occasion.

The officers of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania are William J. Mulligan, Eminent Commander, Philadelphia; Abram Hess, Deputy Grand Commander, Lebanon; John F. Laedlein, Grand Generalissimo, Williamsport; Herman Junker, Grand Captain-General, Pittsburg; Henry H. Buckingham, Grand Senior Warden, York; John M. Schram, Grand Junior Warden, Ridgway; Rev. Thomas M. Boyle, Grand Prelate, Crafton; William M. Donaldson, Grand Treasurer, Harrisburg; William W. Allen, Grand Recorder, Philadelphia; Joseph G. Morris, Grand Standard Bearer, Pittsburg; A. L. Reichenbach, Grand Sword Bearer, Allentown, Herbert R. Laird, Grand Warden, Williamsport, William McCoach, Grand Captain of Guard, Philadelphia; Edwin T. Alburger, Grand Marshal, Philadelphia and Carl A. Sundstrom, Grand Herald, Philadelphia.

DEATH-BED WIFE DENIED FORTUNE

Widow's Claim to $50,000 Estate is Disputed.

It Is Claimed Death Bed Marriage Was Forced Upon the Old Man and That He Was Incompetent to Execute a Will—Relatives Seek to Have Will and Marriage Set Aside.

Washington, March 31.—Miss Mary S. Reeves, of Philadelphia, is one of the principals in a three-cornered fight in the District courts for the possession of the fortune of John R. Brown, a former Philadelphian.

Miss Reeves is represented by Congressman Moon, and the litigants who oppose her are Mrs. Rachel Anna Richardson Brown, who says she married Brown a short time before his death, and a dozen or more distant relatives, all of Philadelphia.

The testimony adduced in the case reveals a touch of romance. Brown many years ago renounced his relatives, so it is said, and came to Washington. Five years ago he became engaged to Mrs. Richardson, who acted as his secretary and nurse. Several months ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, and when asked if he wanted a physician replied that he did not, but desired a minister and insisted upon marrying Mrs. Richardson.

Soon after that he made his will in her favor, but later, it is alleged, upon advice of Benjamin Schwartz, secretary to Congressman Moon, made another, leaving his estate, amounting to more than $50,000, to Miss Reeves, who was merely his friend.

It is now alleged that the marriage was forced upon the old man, who was seventy-two years of age, and that he was incompetent to execute a will. The relatives of Brown also come in and seek to have both the marriage and the will set aside and to have the property divided among them.

The evidence thus far adduced tends to show that the old man was in his right mind when he contracted the marriage and that the ceremony was legally performed. Tracy L. Jeffords, who represents Mrs. Brown, said there was a possibility of startlingly sensational evidence which would involve several persons in Philadelphia. He refused to disclose the nature of this evidence or to intimate who the persons concerned are.

Because of the character of the evidence and the romance of the old man marrying his secretary-nurse on his deathbed, the case is attracting much attention.

Woman's Hat Angers Dog

Mrs. Sarah Hague, of 35 Sands street, New York was attacked and severely injured by a bulldog on Monday, the animal being angered by the feathers on the woman's hat.

The victim of the dog's rage is a middle-aged woman, who was in the Cherry Hill district on an errand of mercy. She wore a large collection of partridge feathers in her hat, still further set off by an aigrette.

When Mrs. Hague was passing 147 Cherry street the dog, which had been taking an early morning sun bath, roused himself and caught a sight of the feathers. Instantly the dog became enraged. Before Mrs. Hague could reach a place of safety the animal began to leap savagely at her hat.

In trying to ward off with her arms the dog's attack on her millinery Mrs. Hague was badly bitten. The flesh was torn on both arms as high as her shoulders. Her cries brought several men who beat off the dog.

Then began the chase after the dog through a crowded district. Women and children got out of the streets until the policeman's revolver ended the dog's life.

Preparing to cut big Timber on Potato Creek.

This means that the extensive tract of timber in that section, the largest one remaining in that part of the country will be cut at the Austin mill. It gives to Potter's Lumber City a new lease of life for at least 12 and may be 15 years. Besides this the Bayless Pulp mill is planning extensive improvements which is the erection of another large dam in order to protect their water supply in the very lowest water seasons. These with other improvements for which prospects are excellingly bright will continue Austin as one of the best towns not only of Potter county but in that section of the state.

Knife of Assassin is Turned by Book.

Attacked by an unidentified assassion believed to be a member of the Black Hand, R. M. Fleming, a foreman at the plant of the Bonny Vise and Tool Company, which recently moved to Allentown from Philadelphia, owes his life to the fact that he carried a small dictionary in his vest pocket. Fleming was about to enter the plant early Thursday morning, and had just placed his lantern on the ground in order to unlock the door, when a fist shot out of the darkness and feiled him to the ground.

Fleming grappled with the man, who drew a dirk and stabbed him twice directly over the heart. The knife blade was turned, however, by the book, and make only slight wounds.

It is believed that the attack was made by a man who wanted to get rid of the watchman as well as the foreman. Fleming recently moved to Allentown from Philadelphia.

NO LOCKOUT IN COAL REGION

Collieries Will Resume Work on Friday.

TOMORROW IS A HOLIDAY

It Is Believed a Full Quota of Men Will Work as Long as the Mines Are Kept Open For Them—Present Wages and Conditions Will Probably Continue—Sentiment Against Strike.

Pottsville, Pa., March 31.—The anthracite collieries in the Schuylkill district will resume work Friday morning after tomorrow's holiday suspension and will work until the close of the week, information to this effect being given out from Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company headquarters and from individual colliery superintendents. This means that there will be no lockout, and if there is any suspension it will be by reason of the miners not reporting at the collieries.

As the sentiment in this region is strongly against a strike if it is possible to come to an agreement which will not be humiliating to the organization it is certain that there will be a full quota of men out as long as the collieries are kept open for them. No intimation is given of the conditions which the operators will offer to the men after the expiration of the present agreement, but by the policy of keeping the mines in operation without any ceremony of any kind it is inferred that the wages and other conditions will remain unchanged.

Will Work Until Further Notice.

Mahanoy City, Pa., March 31.—All doubt as to a lockout at the mines on April 1 was removed by the announcement that the collieries of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company in the Mahanoy district will continue operations after this date until further notice. The Mill Creek Coal company and the Dodson Coal company have decided to pursue a similar policy.

Favor Renewing Agreement.

Shenandoah, Pa., March 31. — The grievance committee of the locals favor the union accepting the operators' terms by signing a three year agreement, even if no concessions are granted. The contract miners at the collieries of the Lehigh Valley Coal company were notified to have the yard squared up for settlement at the close of work today.

No Orders In Lehigh Region.

Hazleton, Pa., March 31.—None of the officials of the coal companies in the Lehigh region has yet received any orders as to how the mines shall be operated after April 1, when the agreement between the operators and miners expires. Unless otherwise decided, the collieries of the Lehigh Valley Coal company will work the entire week, although the miners have been asked by T. L. Lewis, their national president, to observe April 1 as the anniversary of the eight-hour day in the soft coal belt by remaining idle.

DISGRACEFUL SCENE

Performance of King Vaudeville Company at State College—Student's Last Decency to the Winds

Womanhood was outraged at Wednesday night's performance of the King Vaudeville company, which appeared at the Chapel under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans. The young men who indulged in the disgraceful scenes forgo their honor, their chivalry and disgraced the fair names of their mothers and sisters at home. The affair reached such a stage that the ladies in the audience were compelled to retire in disgust. It is almost beyond belief that young men could be so discourteous.

Manager King and his company are ladies and gentlemen. They endeavored to please the audience and did so up to the last act put on. They would have given one of the best shows in Vaudevilledom ever seen in this part of the state.

The pictures were good, so were the acts up to the last one put on, when the actors was pelted with various articles.

The climax was reached, however, when someone in the audience threw a bottle containing a noxious gas which caused the women to become deathly sick, abruptly terminating the show. The affair ended in a disgraceful riot. It was a shameful outburst of ruffianism and besmirched the fair name of woman.—State College Times.

Commissioners Surcharged.

A dispatch from Franklin, Pa., says: The Venango county auditors today surcharged nearly $4,000 against the county commissioners, almost $1,000 more than their combined salaries for a year. The surcharges are based on allegations of unnecessary expenditure. The largest item is $2,273 for an alleged excess in the cost of metallic furniture for the court house. For produce of the county farm sold and not accounted for, the sum of $519 is surcharged. An uncollected rent item of $300 is surcharged, and in this connection, the auditors call attention to the fact that the same rent was not collected in 1906 and 1907. This $600 is not included in the $4000.

A number of items in connection with the execution of Mike Holka are surcharged, among them being the sheriff's trips to see about the scaffold costing $18. The expenditure of $100 for the services of a preacher at the poor house is also surcharged.

It has been the practice here for many years to pay the expenses of the commissioners to state conventions, though there is no provision in law for it. On this account $163 is surcharged. Other items are repairing a bridge, $105; two mileage books, $40; turkeys, $5; chairs for court house, $65.

Commissioner H. H. Baumgardner personally is surcharged with $240 rent, which, it is alleged, he collected.

Death of Miss Heberling.

Miss Eva Heberling, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heberling, died Sunday at 4. a. m., at their home near Pennsylvania Furnace, aged 18 years, 1 month and one day, after a three days illness of typhoid fever. The young girl attended school on Wednesday and did not complain till Thursday and took her bed. A doctor was called in Friday but the end came soon and was a shock to the family as well as the legion of friends. She was a lovely girl and had a bright future before her. Death is sad but doubly so when it calls the flower of the home, and so young.

Besides her parents, four sisters mourn her death, Mrs. Ed. Bechdel, of Eagleville; Mrs. Daniel Beck, of Centre Line; Mrs. Harry Ebbs, of Guyer, and Nancy at home.

Burial was made at Ross cemetery, Monday at 2 p. m. Rev. J. S. Shultz, officiated.

Two Wrecks on Middle Division.

Traffic on the Middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad was detained for some time during Saturday night, a wreck in which seven loaded coal cars were piled up causing three tracks to be blocked for some time. A truck on extra freight No. 2834, when about a quarter mile east of Petersburg, collapsed and the car was derailed. Seven cars loaded with coal following it also left the tracks and piled up in a heap, their contents being spilled over the three track. No one was injured.

Monday morning at 1:30 a rear collission occurred near the water tank east of the Tyrone station in which engine No. 961, five cars and a caboose were badly wrecked. The Tyrone work crews were called out to assist in cleaning up the Wrecks.—Tyrone Herald.

SOCIETY WOMAN A SUICIDE

Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., Asphyxiated in Washington.

SOCIAL CIRCLES SHOCKED

After Returning From a Dinner Given In Honor of Lady Paget, Mrs. Lorillard Turned on the Gas In the Bathroom—Family Declares She Died of Heart Failure.

Washington, March 26.—Weary of the gay whirl of society, and face to face, as she believed, with years of physical suffering, Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., aged forty-nine years, wife of the tobacco magnate, committed suicide by asphyxiation at her home near the fashionable DuPont Circle in this city. Her tragic death has shocked the first social circles of the capital as nothing else in years. In spite of the coroner's certificate of death by suicide, members of the family declare that Mrs. Lorillard died of heart failure.

The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been the guests of Mrs. Townsend, on Massachusetts avenue, at a dinner given in honor of Lady Paget. In fact, it is believed that as soon as Mrs. Lorillard arrived at her home at 2030 Hillyer Place, she began to prepare for her heart failure. She is survived by her husband and two children.

Body Found In Bathroom.

The butler in the Lorillard residence detected an odor of gas permeating the rooms. With little difficulty the origin of the fumes was traced to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments. Opening the door of the bathroom, just off her suite, the butler was horrified to behold the body of the mistress of the house stretched out lifeless on the floor. Her face was turned to the mat on the floor.

The alarm given by the butler brought Mr. Lorillard from his apartments across the hall. Together they carried the limp body to Mrs. Lorillard's room. Panic-stricken, the servants were dispatched for a doctor while Mr. Lorillard attempted to revive his wife by means of artificial respiration. Dr. M. F. Cuthbert, the family physician, was summoned, and arrived about the same time that Dr. H. B. Deale was admitted to the residence. Both resorted to every scientific method within their power to restore life, but after an hour's effort gave up in despair.

The coroner was notified, and he ordered Deputy Coroner Glazebrook to perform an autopsy, upon the completion of which the coroner issued a certificate of death of suicide by gas poisoning. He said later that gas was escaping from one or more jets.

Husband Last Saw Her Alive.

The last person to see Mrs. Lorillard alive was Mr. Lorillard. He bade her good night as they separated to go to their apartments, after returning home about midnight from the Townsend residence. Mrs. Lorillard was seemingly in the best of spirits. She had joined freely in the social festivities of the evening at the Townsend home, where had gathered the Brizilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco, the Danish Minister and Countess Moltke, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Senator and Mrs. Aldrich, Senator Root, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bacon, Lady Clifford, of England; Rear Admiral Cowles and Captain Archibald Butt, military aide of the president.

SLAIN AND PUT ON TRACK

Colored Man Suspected of Clubbing to Death Young Keffers Man.

Pottsville, Pa., March 26.—Joseph Cleary, aged twenty-four years, of Keffers, in the west end of the county, was murdered and placed upon the Philadelphia & Reading railway tracks, where the body was discovered just in time to prevent it from being mangled by the miners' train, enroute to the Lincoln colliery.

A negro who assaulted Cleary last Tuesday is suspected of the crime, and officers are on the lookout for him. The deed was probably committed with a club.

Smallpox on Steamer.

Philadelphia, March 26.—The British steamship Merion, from Liverpool for this city, is detained at the Marcus Hook quarantine station, fifteen miles below this city, with two cases of smallpox on board. When the vessel reached Reedy Island quarantine station, about fifty miles down the Delaware river, the physicians there diagnosed the two cases as chickenpox. Upon the arrival of the Merion at Marcus Hook a specialist was summoned from Philadelphia and said the two patients were suffering from smallpox.

MAY SING IN GRAND OPERA

Miss Wilson, Daughter of Cabinet Member, Expects to Go on Stage.

New York, March 27.—Grand opera is to have a recruit from the family of one of President Taft's cabinet.

Miss Flora Wilson, daughter of the veteran United States secretary of agriculture, who has been studying in France, has just arrived in New York to prepare for making her debut in this country.

MISS FLORA WILSON.

Miss Wilson before going to Europe to study appeared at several amateur entertainments in the White House during the administration of President McKinley, and her success as a singer of ballads prompted her to go further in perfecting her soprano voice for concert and grand opera work.

She studied under Jean de Reszke in Paris and says the famous tenor predicted for her a brilliant career on the operatic stage. It is said her repertoire already embraces twelve operas in Italian, French and German.

KIDNAPPER BOYLE FEARED MOB VIOLENCE

Guards Around Mercer Jail Where Abductors Are Locked Up.

Mercer, Pa., March 27. — Heavily manacled to Sheriff Chess and guarded by several detectives, James Boyle, one of the kidnappers of little Willie Whitla, was brought here from Pittsburg and lodged in the Mercer county jail. His wife was brought here from Pittsburg today, and the couple will be formally arraigned on a charge of kidnapping in a few days. Boyle feared violence on his arrival in Mercer, and on the journey from Pittsburg asked Sheriff Chess if he thought the crowd would harm him. The prisoner looked greatly relieved when he saw only a scattering of people at the Mercer station. Boyle was hurried into a waiting bus and taken to the jail, where he was locked in a cell on the second tier. An armed guard was placed in front of Boyle's cell and a patrolman will be stationed outside the jail. Sheriff Chess said that the jail would be guarded until the trial of the Boyles was over.

There is no fear of a demonstration being made here against the kidnapper. The jail officials clothed Boyle in overalls and an old shirt after he was put in a cell.

FATHER HEARTBROKEN

Woman Kidnapper Said to Be Anna McDermott, of Chicago.

Chicago, March 27.—That William McDermott, a retired member of the Chicago fire department, is the father of "Mrs. James H. Boyle," who, with her husband, is charged with the kidnapping of Willie Whitla, was confirmed by the grief stricken parent.

Anna McDermott, according to her father, as a child was one of the prettiest and brightest in the neighborhood. She was given every possible advantage of education and careful moral training, but as she approached womanhood she fell into company of which the old fireman did not approve.

Quarrels were frequent, and about three years ago Anna eloped. Since that time her history has been a blank to her Chicago kin. Even the name of the man with whom she cast her fortunes was unknown to them.

Kidnappers Shot by Posse.

Tucumcari, N. M., March 27.—John Johnson, a negro, and Sebastian Sandoval, a Mexican, were killed near Cuervo, N. M., after a long pursuit by armed men. Johnson and Sandoval at the point of rifles had kidnapped Juana Sanchez from her uncle's ranch, fifteen miles from Cuervo. The negro declared it was his intention to marry the girl.

Jeered British Flag.

Boston, March 27.—The jeers of a crowd on School street, standing beneath a British flag flying over the doorway of a hotel where guests of the Canadian club were being entertained, caused the hauling down of the flag temporarily. It was soon replaced, but above it floated the Stars and Stripes.

WOULD GIVE UP CLAIM TO THRONE

Servian Cabinet Decides Crown Prince Must Address King.

PREMIER TO RETURN LETTER

Prince George Is Accused of Killing a Servant and Is Charged With Many Other Brutalities—Declares He Will Join the Volunteers In Case of War.

Belgrade, March 26. — A cabinet council decided that the premier is incompetent to receive a direct communication from Crown Prince George who is subject only to his father's authority. The premier will therefore return the letter which the crown prince sent to him, renouncing his right of succession to the Servian throne, and will advise the prince to address himself to the king. The letter of the prince reads as follows:

"Driven by unjustified insinuations, based on an unfortunate occurrence, I beg in defense of my honor, as well as my conscience, to declare that I renounce all claims to the throne, as well as any other privileges to which I am entitled. I beg you to take the necessary steps that this action may receive sanction. I place my services as a soldier and a citizen at the disposal of the king and the fatherland. I am ready to give my life for them."

Recently a bitter press campaign has been waged against the crown prince. He has been accused of being implicated in the death of one of his servants, a man named Kolakovots, and it is now learned that the prince took this action because of a threatened interpellation in the national assembly on this subject. The prince now declares that before leaving the country he will await the final result of the pending political situation and will join the volunteers as a private in the event of war.

The servant was removed to a hospital last week suffering from serious internal injuries, and died after an operation. According to the report of the doctors who performed an autopsy, death was due to serious injury consequent upon falling downstairs.

According to current reports, Kolakovits before his death asserted that the injuries to his head and abdomen had been inflicted by the crown prince.

There have been many previous reports of the brutalities of the prince since he came to Belgrade after the murders of King Alexander and Queen Draga in 1903. Statesmen and officials of high degree are said to have been beaten and fired out by the prince during fits of crazy anger.

Another report credits him with the murder of a game keeper.

BIG RAILROADERS AT DINNER

Some of the Country's Most Prominent Men Will Attend Pittsburg Banquet.

Pittsburg, March 26. — One of the greatest gatherings of leading railroad men ever assembled in this country will meet here tonight at the annual banquet of the local Traffic club. in balancing heavy hanging lamps. The boys on finding the bombs, proceeded to play ball with them. Soon two of them exploded, terribly mangling one of the boys, one of whom had his stomach ripped open, while an arm of the other lad was shattered.

The bombs were loaded with dynamite. The police, in investigating the affair, found a handkerchief in which gunpowder and nails were tied near the spot at which the bombs had been found by the boys.

CASTRO SAILING TOWARD HOME

He Leaves French Port on His Way to Venezuela.

Bordeaux, France, March 26.—Sailing today on the steamer Guadeloupe bound for West Indian and Venezuelan ports, was Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, who has been in Europe several months for his health.

Members of Castro's party declared that his sailing for home was a reply to his enemies, who had asserted that he would never return to South America. Castro professed a warm love for his native land and declared vehemently that his foes had maligned his government. In view, however, of the indictments returned against him by the high court of Venezuela, in which he is accused of compassing the deaths of some of his political opponents, he will not go directly to La Guayra, the port of Caracas, but will leave the Guadeloupe at Port of Spain, Trinidad.

Both Castro and his staff declared that there was no foundation for the report that he intended to lead a rebellion against President Gomez, his successor in Caracas.

VON BUELOW TO RETIRE

Report as to the Plans of the German Chancellor.

London, March 26.—A news agency dispatch from Berlin states that the resignation of Prince Von Buelow, chancellor of the empire, is imminent. He has held the chancellorship since October, 1900, when he succeeded Prince Hohenlohe.

Excitement that ran high throughout the day owing to the prospect of a fatal split in the government's bloc majority with the fall of Chancellor Von Buelow or a dissolution of parliament, has been calmed by the issue of an official statement to the effect that the National Liberal leader, Herr Bassermann, "misunderstood" the supposed denunciations of the bloc compact in the reichstag by Herr Norman, the Conservative leader.

The opinion, however, that the bloc will continue is weakened by the fact that Chancellor Von Buelow had conferences with both leaders.

It is regarded as likely that Count Charles Von Wedel, governor of Alsace-Lorraine, will succeed Prince Von Buelow in case of the latter's retirement.

NO CHEAPER COAL UNTIL MEN SIGN

Operators Will Maintain Prices Until Agreement is Reached.

TO RUN MINES FULL TIME

Leaders of Workmen Summoned to Indianapolis For Conference With Leaders In Bituminous Coal Fields. Preparing to Submit a Final Proposition to Operators.

Philadelphia, March 27. — Notwithstanding the general belief that the anthracite miners will renew the present wage agreement, the operators are taking no chances and decided that they will make no reduction in the price of coal until a wage contract has been signed.

More than that, the operators have decided to run every colliery from now until April 1 in order that as much coal as possible may be mined. Just as soon as the miners and operators come to some agreement the operators will put into effect the usual reduced prices for the summer trade.

Leaders of the anthracite miners have been summoned to Indianapolis for a conference with the leaders in the bituminous coal fields so that whatever proposition President Lewis and his committee submit to the hard coal operators will have the hearty support of every member of the United Mine Workers of America.

In response to instructions received from Indianapolis, Presidents Adam Rascavage, of District No. 1; John McElhenney, of District No. 7, and John Fahy, of District No. 9, started for Indianapolis.

The trip of the three presidents to Indianapolis is significant at this time, inasmuch as at the tri-district convention in Scranton the details of further negotiations with the operators were left entirely to the executive boards of those districts with power to act.

When President Fahy was asked the significance of his trip to Indianapolis, he said that he was under instructions to say nothing about it. He admitted, however, that when the anthracite miners' committee comes to confer with President Baer and the other operators again it will be prepared to submit a definite and final proposition.

President Lewis will remain in Indianapolis all of next week, and it is not expected that any conference with the hard coal operators can be held before week after next. A movement is on foot to have the next conference in New York, although President Lewis personally prefers this city.

No Reduction In New York.

New York, March 27.—There was no reduction in the price of coal here, the meeting of the Coal Merchants' association, which had been called to declare the usual spring reduction, being postponed because the expected notification of a reduction in the wholesale price by the operators was not received.

MINERS WON'T QUIT APRIL 1

Lewis Says That Chances of Anthracite Strike Are Slight.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27.—"I see no prospect of a strike in the anthracite coal field," said Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, at the close of the session of the national executive board.

"The miners will continue at work indefinitely. That is to say unless the operators demand that a new agreement be signed to take the place of the one that expires April 1, or that the miners demand that the operators sign an agreement embodying the stipulations presented to the operators at the recent meeting we had with them in Philadelphia."

The woman and her two children were in bed in a room over the store. One of the four other children, who were also burned, is so badly injured that little hopes are entertained of its recovery.

OPERATORS' STATEMENT

Intimate Union of Anthracite Men Would Be Recognized.

SUGGESTIONS DISREGARDED

They Say Mr. Roosevelt Advised Workers to Establish Permanent Relations With Operators and That the Strike Commission In 1902 Advised Them to Organize an Anthracite Mine Workers' Union.

New York, March 29.—The anthracite coal operators, who have refused to recognize the United Mine Workers of America as an organization officially representative of the mining employes, issued a statement setting forth their attitude on the point at issue. The statement follows:

"When the demand is made that the anthracite operators shall enter into a contract with the United Mine Workers of America it is pertinent to ask what has been done by this organization, either as a whole or in the anthracite region, to carry out the plan proposed by the strike commission of 1902. This commission, appointed by the president of the United States, considered thoroughly the constitution and character of the union and expressed their opinion about it with complete frankness.

"The commission said distinctly that the constitution of the United Mine Workers of America was not such as to encourage the operators to make a contract with it; and certain changes that might make satisfactory trade agreements possible were recommended to the mine workers. During the six years elapsed since the commission did its work the mine workers have taken no steps to carry out these recommendations.

Quote Mr. Roosevelt's Letter.

"In his letter of October 23, 1902, to the anthracite coal strike commission the president of the United States said:

"'I have appointed you a commission to inquire into, consider and pass upon the question in controversy in connection with the strike in the anthracite region, and the causes out of which the controversy arose. By the action you recommend, which the parties in interest have in advance consented to abide by, you will endeavor to establish the relations between the employers and the wage workers in the anthracite fields on a just and permanent basis, and, as far as possible, to do away with any causes for the recurrence of such difficulties as those which you have been called in to settle.'

"On pages 60-68 or its official report the commission decided against the demand for a contract between the operators and the union, and gave at length its reasons therefor. It criticised various features of the organization and said: 'The present constitution of the United Mine Workers of America does not present the most inviting inducement to the operators to to enter into contractual relations with it.'

"Following this statement, the commission made definite suggestions, one of which was that an organization of anthracite mine workers, governed by anthracite mine workers, and free from control or dictation of bituminous mine workers, would remove some of the serious objections then existing.

Say Suggestions Were Disregarded.

"Other practical suggestions were made. The mine workers have made no move to adopt any of them. By not diing so they have failed to do their part in carrying out the object of the strike commission—'to establish the relations between employers and the wage workers in the anthracite fields on a just and permanent basis.'

"A complete answer to the demand for recognition of the United Mine Workers of America is that the strike commission, composed of fair minded and capable men, decided against it, and that the reasons which they gave for their decision exists now as they existed six and three years ago. It will be an ill day for our industries when the entire supply of coal in the country, anthracite and bituminous, is put into the power of any organization, to do what it will in withholding or curtailing our fuel supply."

The operators also announced a reduction of 50 cents a ton on prepared sizes of coal.

Miss Spier nursed Mrs. Virginia Callan Carder, wife of Dr. George L. Carder, a prominent society woman, in the Allegheny hospital, and took such tender care of her that the sick woman asked the nurse to kiss her as she was dying. The request was granted, and in a few days Miss Spier was stricken with the same malady, dying from blood poisoning, contracted, the doctors say, by the kiss.

BATTLE WITH INDIANS LIKELY

Troops Set Out to Capture or Kill Murderous Band.

SIX MEN ALREADY SLAIN

When Soldiers Reached the Indians' Camp They Found It Deserted and In Flames — Redskins Fled to a Stronger Position, Where Battle Will Likely Be Fought—Their Last Stand Against Lawful Authority.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 29.—Five companies if Oklahoma militia marched against Crazy Snake's band of Creek Indians, half breeds and negroes, entrenched in the Hickory hills, seven miles from Henryetta.

A battle is regarded as inevitable, as the heavily armed troops set out either to capture or exterminate the murderous band, which since Thursday has caused the death of six men, the wounding of many others, and brought about a condition of terror in Henryetta, Pierce and all the surrounding country.

Crazy Snake's men number about 200, all armed with modern rifles and plentifully supplied with ammunition. They had prepared for two months for this, their final stand against lawful authority. They defiantly sent out word that they would fight to the death.

The militiamen's officers declared that they would shoot to kill from the first.

When the state troops reached the camp of Crazy Snake they found it deserted and every tepee, hut and tent in flames. The Indians had fled to a stronger position to the north, where a battle likely will be fought.

Choked Confession From Indian.

Crazy Snake is in personal command. This was established by the testimony, choked out of his college-bred son by means of a nice new inch rope. Young Harjo was strung up by the determined deputies until nearly dead. Then he gasped out that his father was in command; named the Indian who killed the deputies; told the officers how to trail the band, and did everything which a stoical red man is supposed not to do when in the hands of his enemies.

This first real Indian uprising for years has held this region on edge for three days. It had been plotted and prepared for two months. It broke out last Thursday, when several deputy sheriffs went to Henryetta to arrest negro cattle thieves. They were fired on by negro and half breed friends of the criminals and forced to retreat. A few hours later they returned with additional forces, and were fired on by the band, then augmented by a number of Crazy Snake's Indians. In this fight three negroes were killed and five wounded, according to the official reports, although it is thought that many more Indians were wounded, as scores of shots were fired at close quarters. This clash resulted in forty-one arrests.

Indians Are Determined.

Meantime Crazy Snake's followers determined on an aggressive campaign. The chief's plans had to be prematurely sprung on account of the unexpected attack of deputies on Henryetta. Deputies fanned the flames by hunting starenuously for the leaders, and Crazy Snake, forced to the wall, determined to strike a hard blow in an effort to escape.

Thursday night part of his band was run to cover by deputies in a search for leaders of Thursday's fight. Marshal Baum, of Checotah, and Deputy Odom, of Eufaula, paid their lives as a price. They were shot down by Charles Coker, a Seminole Indian. This event aroused the state authorities. Governor Haskell ordered out the militia, and the word was passed along that the band must be captured or killed.

GAME PLENTIFUL IN EAST AFRICA

Hunting "Like Shooting Cows in a Back Yard."

New York, March 29.—In the opinion of Dana Estes, the well known Boston publisher, who arrived here on the steamer St. Louis after a 25,000 mile journey in Europe, Asia and Africa, former President Roosevelt will find hunting big game in East Africa "like shooting cows in a back yard."

"The antelope and animals of that kind are so tame," he said, "that they graze along the railroad track and scarcely look up as the train goes by. I saw thousands of zebras, antelopes, ostriches, etc. They were within a few hundred yards of the train, and most of them never even so much as lifted their heads as we went by."

Mr. Estes visited Uganda, circled completelly around Lake Victoria Nyanza, and pushed in through Rhodesia to Cape Colony. His travels in Africa took him inland as far as the Victoria Falls on the upper Zambesi.

WHAT THE WORLD THROWS AWAY.

"A Chinaman will live on what a Frenchman throws away; a Frenchman will live on what a German throws away; a German will live on what an Englishman throws away; an Englishman will live on what an American throws away." We are the most wasteful people in the world. This, says a writer in "Success Magazine," is so much the better for those who deal in our waste. The humble junk business, the trade of unconsidered trifles, has prospered in America more than in all other countries. In Boston lives a dealer who has accumulated more than a million dollars; several of his competitors could sign checks in six figures. The leading dealer in Providence, who handles nothing but scrapiron, is worth half a million. Philadelphia has two junk millionaires and a cluster of near-millionaires. One of these Philadelphia dealers has half a million invested in buildings and equipment alone. Ground in New York is too costly for many large warehouses or iron yards, and most of them are located in New Jersey. Scattered over that state are a dozen dealers who have made fifty one hundred two hundred, five hundred thousand dollars from that which the metropolis has thrown away. One of these New Jersey dealers recently bought the the greatest "lot" of junk ever handled in the world's history—the old iron and refuse which the French abandoned at Panama. The original cost of this material was about twenty million dollars. What was the tune of the mere song he paid for it, or how much he has made by selling off the scrap-iron and metal no one has ever dared to estimate.

THE STATE'S CANALS.

The Pennsylvania State Railroad commission last week made a report to Governor Stuart upon canals and abandoned railroad projects. The commission from its investigations learned that many charter were taken out in past years, but very few of them were ever built. They were of the opinion, however, that the state affords excellent opportunities for canal enterprises.

We doubt very much if canals will ever play any considerable part in the development of this state. Wherever there are passengers in sufficient numbers or freight in sufficient quantity to tempt the cupidity of capital, the steam road or the trolley is soon there.

Private capital is most discriminating as to what enterprises pay best and the very fact that we do not have canals is sufficient proof that they will not pay, in competition with the more modern methods of transportation.

We believe that the state government can employ its time better than by seeking to revive a system of transportation, which the onward march of progress has relegated to the dump heap.

PRESIDENT Taft's double has appeared in a half dozen places. This is as was to be expected. Nobody can become great without having somebody else to look like him, no more than a woman who buys the only stylish hat in town can expect not to have some other woman get one just like it.

AN IMAGINARY OBSTACLE.

It is difficult to entertain much sympathy for the theory of certain legislators that the enactment of the James bill, providing capital punishment for child stealing would repeal the life imprisonment act and therefore make it impossible to try the abductors of Willie Whitla. Considering the subject in the light of common sense this would amount to a stultification of the entire science of penal legislation.

A man violates a statue at a certain date and thereby becomes liable to the penalty described at that date. Subsequently the Legislature passes a new law changing the penalty. Does that wipe out the fact that the man violated the law as it stood when the offense was committed and became subject to its penalties? We venture to suggest that the old law takes effect, and an offense committed on the last day of the old law can be punished under the old penalty until the statue of limitation intervenes.

We make that assertion in view of the fact that very prominent illustrations of the practice have recently been afforded. The refinement of casuistry which would produce every time a criminal penalty was charged an interregnum of immunity for lawbreakers was elaborated in the attempt to discover a loophole for corporate offenders against the inter-State commerce act and got very short treatment from the courts It should be known of all men that trials and sentences for rebating under the Elkins amendments to that law have been going on since the Hepburn amendments were passed. Moreover, for ages legislatures have been altering criminal penalties. If the proponents of this theory can find a single case in which the ultimate court has released a criminal because this penalty was changed between the date of the crime and the trial they should reveal the discovery.

THE CHILD LABOR BILL.

The Shern child labor has been reported with amendments from the House manufacturers' committee. As amended the bill does not protect the glass interests in regard to employment of persons under the age of 14 years. A further amendment prohibits the employment of persons under the age of 14 years between nine o'clock a. m., and six p. m. Another amendment provides that when a minor leaves the employment of his employer his certificate issued by the school authorities shall become his personal property. Originally the bill required the return of the certificate to the school authorities.

In its present form the bill permits the employment of minors over the age of 14 years, who can read and write the English language in mercantile establishments, stores factories and workshops.

In its amended form Representative Shern said the bill meets the demands of the Pennsylvania Child Labor association and also the manufacturing interests.

WHAT happens in all contests happens in the contests between stores—the strongest, most persistent ones win. Advertising is the test.

THE latest Canton burglary is so different from those preceding it as to make it quite noticeable. This time the burglars really got something.

A NEW YORK fashion writer is authority for the statement that the day of the Marcel wave and of the rat is past. Man is not particularly interested in the Marcel wave when it is fastened on tight enough to stay and of a color that permits him to imagine that it is the natural but he will hail with relief the disappearance of the rate and the reduction of woman's head to something like normal size.

THE garnishee bill, which was sidetracked at Harrisburg, would have enabled creditors to attach and collect up to 25 per cent of the wages of the salary earned by any person in the commonwealth in satisfaction of a money judgement. It can readily be seen why such a bill would be opposed, as a law like that would benefit chiefly dealers in flashy jewelry, millinery and such dispensable kickshaws. The dealer in necessities can always demand cash and thereby be protected.

ON April 3rd the Rogers Virginia railroad running from West Virginia to Norfolk, Va., will be opened for traffic: The road is built in a manner to afford the cheapest and quickest facilities for carrying the bituminous coal from the West Virginia fields to tidewater. No doubt but that Mr. Rogers expects to have something to say in future about the soft coal business that will make the mine owners of Pennsylvania take notice. However, this section is losing no sleep over Mr. Rogers' operations and our mines will continue to furnish the best soft coal in the world and command the right price.

Puts "Bug on" His End Man.

Tables were reversed this time, when interlocutor put one over his end man and the rest of the minstrel show, and Calvin Hoss sprung a decided surprise recently when he introduced a blushing bride to the Carlton Guy Minstrel company just before the curtain went up at the New Sun, and then stepped on the stage to put the question to the colored man on the end.

Mrs. Huss a few hours before had been Miss Mary Eva Wyland. They were married by the Rev. Charles J. French, rector of Christ Episcopal church, at the parsonage in East High street, Springfield, O.

But the joke which was on the end man involved some man-hunting and some "waiting at the church." The young couple were to have been married at Lima, but Miss Wyland's train was late or there was some slip or other and she did not get in on scheduled time. In the meantime Interlocutor Huss, who had already done his "interlocuting," was waiting, the company came to Springfield and still he was waiting. At last she came but it was too late for the wedding Sunday so they went on and were married Monday afternoon, after the many slips, but much to the surprise of the Guy minstrels.

O the newlyweds, Mr. Huss is from Spring Mills, Pa., and his bride from Bellefonte, Pa., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wyland, of North Thomas street.

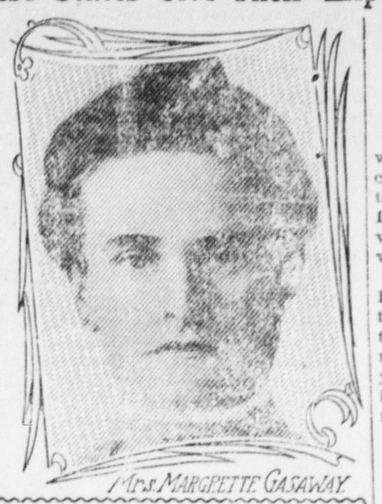
MASSACHUSETTS, MICHIGAN AND MISSOURI.

Ladies Representing These States Give Their Experience With Pe-ru-na.

Expressions of Gratitude for Dr. Hartman's Advice.



A Fine Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 Fourth St., Green Bay, Wis., writes:

"I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known here than any other medicine, but I never knew what a splendid medicine it really was until a few weeks ago when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me.

"The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna, and sent for a bottle and tried it.

"I felt much better the next morning, and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or any cough.

"I consider it the finest cough remedy."

Severe Throat Trouble.

Mrs. Margrette Gasaway, 212 E. 17th St., Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"I had catarrh in the worst form. Cancers of the throat had eaten both palate and tonsils out and had commenced to eat in the roof of my mouth. The best specialist had given me up.

"Then I commenced taking your medicine and will say four bottles completely cured me, but I still keep it in the house and take it whenever I take cold."

Although a cold is rarely directly fatal, yet it is a most productive source of incurable disease. Peruna operates directly to heal the inflamed mucous membranes.

Colds and Catarrhal Troubles.

Mrs. Nora Bigelow, Box 207, Fremont, Michigan, writes:

"Peruna is a wonderful remedy for catarrhal troubles. I can scarcely find words to express to you my thanks for what your remedy has done for me.

"I was troubled with catarrh for a long time, and eight bottles of Peruna have cured me. I can recommend it very highly to any one troubled with catarrh.

"I still keep Peruna in the house, and we all take it when we have a cold."

Stomach and Bronchial Diseases.

Mrs. Emily Ross Perry, poet and author of "Minnehaha Laughing Water." Has been honored by her state and given a medal in recognition of her services. Wife of Commander Freeman G. Perry of P. Chase G. A. R. Post 68 and well known in G. A. R. and society circles.

Home address 819 18th Ave., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

"I have tried Peruna and found it an excellent tonic and cure for catarrh. It is good for all catarrhal affections of the stomach and all diseases leading to consumption and bronchial troubles. I believe it to be one of the best medicines on the market, and thousands can testify to its cure with the same pleasure to the public that I can."

Gained Fifteen Pounds.

Mrs. Cordia Brown, R. F. D. 4, Rogersville, Tenn., writes that she can safely recommend Peruna to all who are weak and run down, that she gained fifteen pounds while taking Peruna.

Recommend Pe-ru-na Very Highly for Catarrh.

Lost Sense of Smell.

Mrs. John Meyers, Mallet Creek, Ohio, writes: "I have been a sufferer from chronic catarrh for years and have thereby lost the sense of smell entirely. I had four of the best physicians in this vicinity without receiving any benefit whatever.

"Now I am once more a well woman. I find Peruna to be the best medicine in the world, as it has done me more good than any physician could have done for me. My friends say I look ten years younger. I tell them that Peruna did it. I can't thank you enough for your free advice."

The Nasal Mucous Membrane.

The nasal mucous membrane is one of the most important mucous surfaces of the body, since the nerves of smell are distributed to it, and the slightest impairment of it leads at once to a partial or complete loss of smell.

Catarrh is the most frequent source of derangement of this membrane. This membrane is continuous with the lining of the throat, ears and frontal sinuses, and nasal catarrh soon spreads to these parts unless cured promptly.

Peruna is the proper remedy in all stages of catarrh, and is often the only remedy necessary except some complications exist. But of course it takes more time to cure cases of long standing, especially in the atrophic stage.

All Run Down, No Appetite.

Mrs. Thomas Hover, R. F. D. 1, Montague, Mass., writes:

"As I doctored over a year without any relief and kept getting worse, I gave up all hope of ever getting well again.

"I was all run down, could eat scarcely anything. I was nervous and had such terrible pains in my right side and shoulder.

"I happened to see one of Dr. Hartman's booklets and wrote to him for advice and followed it as he said. I cannot express how grateful I feel for Dr. Hartman's kind advice and Peruna."

Used according to the directions, Peruna will often secure the family against colds, coughs, pneumonia, pleurisy and bronchitis.

The true cough medicine is the one that cures the congested membranes, and thus stops the discharges, when the cough ceases of its own accord.

If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

This latest achievement of science is of great value in curing sick headache. Thousands of women are today free from that painful disease sorely through the use of this specific.

Spring Fashions

"Look out for surprises these spring days, for you will find many of them—and big ones, too—in the new fashions," writes Grace Margaret Gould, the fashion expert, in Woman's Home Companion for April. "There is a change in the waistline and a surprise in some of the imported skirts—they are growing wider—and as for the little touches which are always so important in the new gowns, they are soon to march before us in a long, long procession.

"Of course there is a surprise in the hats. From the overtrimmed conspicuous winter hat we have the imported spring hat, a model of simplicity. Among the millinery novelities is a graceful hat made of French pique. It is not designed to wear sorely with morning dresses—oh, dear, no! It is a model regarded as quite the proper thing to wear with elaborate costumes. For trimming there is a simulared bunch of grapes, each grape covered with pique, and also a group of white wings. Another French hat shows the very new two-story crown."

Kreamer—Walker.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Morris Kreamer and Miss Mae Walker both of this place drove to Centre Hall and were quietly married at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. Gress. Both young folks are well known about town, the bride being one of the obliging "Hello girls" in the Commercial exchange for a number of years, and the groom is the baker for Joseph Crader They were accompanied to Centre Hall by Miss Gertie Kreamer a sister of the groom and Mr. Clarence McCafferty, who acted as brides maid and best man. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kreamer wish them abundant success on the sea of matrimony.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Peter and Cornelius. Acts x:1-48.

Golden Text—In every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness, is accepted of him. Acts x:35.

Verses 1-8.—Was a devout Roman in those days as well pleasing to God as was a devout Jew?

Can you give any reason today why God is not as well pleased with a devout Roman Catholic, as he is with a devout Protestant, or vice versa?

What reason is there for or against the idea, that revelations and visions were given to devout men of all nations in those days, as well as the Jews?

Verses 9-16.—Is it wise and profitable to have certain set times for prayer, or is it better to be always in the spirit of prayer, and let our needs, or the Holy Spirit direct as to special times for prayer?

Are people who are not seeking for revelations, likely to have them?

The eating of the flesh of those animals, or most of them, which Peter saw in his vision, is forbidden in the old testament; how do you account for it, that "the word of God," and the spirit of God do not agree in this case?

Peter in the first instance stuck to his creed, and refused to obey the direct voice of God; was he right or wrong in so doing?

Must we, in thought, be bound in all things by the written words in the Bible and refuse to obey any direction of the Holy Spirit to the contrary?

Verses 17-27.—Does God blame us if we test what we think to be revelations before we act upon them

When God gives a revelation that is not unmistakably clear, may we depend that he will arrange circumstances, or give another revelation to clear up the doubt, as in this case?

Was Cornelius reconciled to God, or an accepted child at this time?

Verses 28-29.—Are any of the Commandments of the Bible to be tested by the teaching of Jesus, and by the spirit of God, or must we unhesitatingly obey them all, just as they read, without any question? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club)

Verses 30-33. If we prayed and fasted more, should we have more visions of God?

Is there any merit in good works; and how much if any, credit does God give for them?

Does God in these days give by his Spirit, such detailed and matter of fact instructions, as he gave to Peter and Cornelius?

Verses 34-43.—What is the ground of a man's acceptance with God, according to Peter's statement here?

According to the suggestion in verse 37, Cornelius had heard about Jesus, his teaching, his death and resurrection; is it at all unlikely that he was a believer in Jesus?

Verses 44-48.—What is the meaning of the Holy Spirit falling upon this company?

Excepting the gift of tongues, are all Christians privileged to receive the Holy Ghost as these persons did?

How may a Christian in the state Cornelius was, receive the Holy Ghost as he did?

Lesson for Sunday April 11th, 1909.—Easter Lesson. I Cor. xv.12-28.

A GREAT INDUSTRY.

Among the greatest American industries is the rose growing establishment of The Dingee & Conard Co., West Grove Pa., the largest growers of rose plants in the world. Their annual output is over one million plants all grown on their own roots. This great concern was established in 1850 by Charles Dingee, who, at the age of 84, is still hale and hearty. 'Twas he who first sent growing rose plants safely by mail, and now their patrons run into the hundreds of thousands. It is said they have customers in every county of every State in the Union, as well as in every civilized country. They have made the village of West Grove famous as the greatest rose town on this continent. Their mail comprises thousands of letters daily, and is delivered in special sacks, and at this time of year they load well nigh to a carload of mail daily. They have the reputation of growing the strongest, best and most beautiful roses in the world. They sell the plants only, not the flowers. They also carry a complete list of miscellaneous plants, also flower and vegetable seeds.

This office is in receipt of their annual catalogue for 1909, which is termed "Sixty Years Among the Roses," a magnificent book of 116 pages, beautifully gotten up and illustrated profusely in natural colors in photographs, showing the celebrated Dingee Roses as they actually are. This book, we are told, cost them over $10,000, and is a work of art. The most remarkable part of it is that they offer to send it free to all who ask for it. We urge the readers of the Republican to take advantage of this opportunity to secure this beautiful rose book free. Make your home surroundings more attractive by planting some of these gorgeous roses. This book tells you the best varieties to select, how to grow them and how to care for them. It is a complete guide to successful rose culture, and was written for the beginner, and for a very small sum the residents of Bellefonte and vicinity can have roses blooming in thier yards and climbing over their porches in abundance, there by adding to the charm of the home, as well as adding to the attractiveness of the community at large. Address a postal card to-day for free catalogue to The Dingee & Conard Co. West Grove, Pa. It will pay you.

The Best Guaranty of Merit is Open publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. The fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribed them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredient are those endorsed by the most eminent medical autnorities. The further fact that neither Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood-purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

He had been in excellent health until very lately. Mr. Logan was a veteran of the Civil war and was formerly post master of Milton and a member of council,

AFFINITY SUES FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Ferdinand Earle Seeks to Annul Marriage.

SAYS HE IS A LUNATIC

Alleges Her Husband Was of Unsound Mind When They Were Married, But She Did Not Know It—Earle Put Away His First Wife to Wed Her, Claiming They Were Soul Mates.

Middletown, N. Y., March 27.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, artist, poet and foremost exponent of the "affinity" idea, was served with papers in an action brought by Mrs. Earle, formerly Miss Julia Kuttner, of New York city, for annulment of their marriage. Mrs. Earle alleges that Earle is of unsound mind and was so at the time of their marriage, although she did not become convinced of this until about Jan. 12 of this year.

Furthermore, she says, Earle was incapable of legally contracting marriage because at the time he had a wife living, to whom he was married in Paris in 1903. The plaintiff at the time believed Earle's assertion that he had secured a divorce from a court of competent jurisdiction, but she is now convinced that the first marriage is still valid and in full force.

Mrs. Earle asks that she be awarded the custody of their infant child, Edmund Erwin Earle, and be allowed to resume her maiden name. The child, if her suit is successful, will also assume her name.

Earle returned only a few days ago from a long western trip. It is believed he will fight the suit.

Thought They Were Soul Mates.

Earle, who is a son of the late General E. P. Earle, of New York city, married his first wife, a French woman, in Paris in 1903, while he was completing his art studies. After they had lived in this country for some time Earle met Miss Kuttner, then a settlement worker in New York. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Earle at their home in Monroe, and shortly afterwards Earle announced that he and Miss Kuttner were soul mates. It was arranged that his wife should take their child and go back to France, where she was to obtain a divorce. She left on Sept. 3, 1907, and some time afterward Earle and Miss Kuttner were married. They went to Monroe to live and there their child was born. Shortly after the birth of the child Earle was arrested and spent some time in the Goshen jail, accused of assaulting Mrs. Earle.

IRELAND SAILS FOR HOME

Archbishop Received Much Attention While In Paris.

Paris, March 27.—Archbishop Ireland sailed today from Havre on the steamer La Touraine for New York. During his week's stay in Paris the archbishop has been the recipient of much attention. In an interview he said:

"From what I have seen and heard during my stay here I have formed the distinct impression that the state's policy of persecuting religion will not last much longer—that there will be an arrangement to intervene soon. A republic, especially a republic like France, where the people are volatile cannot endure without religion, which is the creator of the individual conscience."

WILLIAM O'BRIEN RESIGNS

Irish Patriot Quits Parliament and Retires From Politics.

Cork, March 27.—A sensation was created here by the appearance of a letter from William O'Brien announcing his resignation as Nationalist member of parliament for Cork and his retirement from politics. The letter says:

"Recent developments, notably the defection of five members for Cork make it impossible for me to further press my views on a country which apparently is unable or unwilling to hear me."

AMATEUR GOLFERS' EVENT

Annual North and South Championship Games Begin Today.

Pinehurst, N. C., March 24.—Beginning today and lasting until April 3, games in the ninth annual north and south amateur golf championships will be played on the local links.

The new eighteen hole course, opened a few months ago, has won the approval of the visiting players, and low scores are expected. The local club now has two eighteen hole courses and two nine hole courses. Some of the best known amateur players of the United States will compete in the tournament.

Michigan to Vote on Local Option.

Detroit, March 29.—Twenty-seven counties of Michigan will vote on the county option prohibition issue April 6. There are upwards of 1000 saloons and fourteen breweries and wholesale liquor houses which the Anti-Saloon league is endeavoring to abolish at the coming election.

Welcome Words To Women

If, you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest square-deal medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills. The makers of

for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. Is this not a significant fact worthy of careful consideration?

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines sold by druggists for their peculiar weaknesses and ailments because it is

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is not anything like advertised secret compounds or patent medicines.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments and carefully adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside bottle-wrapper.

It's foolish—often dangerous to be over-persuaded into accepting a secret nostrum in place of this time-proven medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a Stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the Heart or Kidneys. The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

The Record in Bellefonte is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ill and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Bellefonté citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Mrs: Emma J. Davis of E. Logan St. Bellefonte, Pa. says; I have a great deal of confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, and have already recommended them in a published testimonial in 1897. I told how I had been relieved of kidney complaint and backache which had kept me suffering for years. Doan's Kidney Pills did this for me when other remedies had failed. Whenever I feel any symptom of my old trouble I send to F. Potts Green's drug store for a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and it never requires more than a few doses to get me right."

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

WOMAN DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Mrs. Mary Farmer Executed at Auburn, N. Y.

WAS BRAVE TO THE END

Accompanied by Her Pastor, She Walked to the Death Chamber With Firm Step and Showed No Signs of Collapse—Her Husband Also Under Death Sentence For the Same Crime.

Auburn, N. Y., March 29.—Mrs. Mary Farmer was put to death in the electric chair in the penitentiary here this morning. She walked to the death chamber with a firm step and showed no signs of collapse. She was accompanied by Father J. J. Hickey, her pastor, who prayed with her during the short trip from her cell.

The crime for which she was executed, and for which her husband, James D. Farmer, is also under sentence of death, was the murder of MRS. MARY D. FARMER.

Mrs. Sarah Brennan, a neighbor, to get possession of her property, in the village of Brownsville, on April 23, 1908. The body of Mrs. Brennan was found in a trunk owned by Mrs. Farmer and in her possession. Mrs. Farmer left a statement by which she hoped to exonerate her husband. She prepared the statement in the presence of a notary public and Father Hickey, her spiritual adviser.

On Sunday Mrs. Farmer was taken from the women's prison to the receiving cell in the condemned row, where she bade farewell to her husband, and then was lodged in a cell that adjoins the execution chamber, and there awaited the call to the chair. The last words between herself and husband, separated in their parting interview by heavy bars and an impenetrable screen, were affecting to the two women attendants and the captain of the guard. As the law does not permit it, there was no farewell embrace when the time came for separation.

After the steel door of Mrs. Farmer's cell had closed and James Farmer, weeping, had been led away, the woman fell upon her cot and wept for a few moments and then began to pray.

Her husband was then taken to another part of the prison that he might not hear the tread of the witnesses on their way to the room of execution or the march of his wife to her death.

Mrs. Farmer spent her last night in prayer, while two women attendants sat outside her cell door.

DICTIONARY SAVED LIFE

Knife Pierced Book Over Man's Heart When Stabbed In the Dark.

Allentown, Pa., March 26.—R. M. Fleming, of Philadelphia, night foreman of the Bonney Vise and Tool company, which lately moved here from Philadelphia, was saved from death by a pocket dictionary.

As he was passing from one department to another at the works he received a stinging blow in the dark from an unknown assailant. Fleming grappled with the man, and was gaining the mastery, when his assailant thrust a knife at his heart. Fleming would have been killed, but the dagger struck a small dictionary he carried in his vest pocket. The point of the knife went through the book, but only grazed Fleming's skin.

The assailant escaped. It is supposed the would-be murderer is some dissatisfied workman.

KETCHELL-O'BRIEN GO WILL BE HOT FIGHT

New Yorkers Anxious to See Michigan Man Box.

New York, March 26.—Not since the Attell-Driscoll fight a month ago has so much interest been taken by New York sports in a boxing match as that shown in the Ketchel-O'Brien fight, which will take place tonight. Followers of pugilism are anxious to see Ketchel perform, to decide for themselves what chance he has against Jack Johnson, the colored champion.

Ketchel's opponent tonight will be "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, who was defeated by Tommy Burns, the latter going down in turn before Johnson in Australia. Unless Ketchel disposes of O'Brien in quick time tonight the experts figure that he will have little chance against Johnson.

Ketchel is still middleweight champion, having regained the title by defeating Billy Papke on the coast some time ago. There will be a big attendance at the fight, which will take place before one of the best sporting clubs of this city.

PENS OBITUARY, KILLS HIMSELF

War Veteran Ends Life on Crowded New York Street.

WAS ILL AND DESPONDENT

Bitterly Declared He Was Unable to Obtain Employment In Government Service, Although He and Father Fought For the Union and Three Brothers Died on Battlefield.

New York, March 27.—After carefully preparing a long obituary notice and handing it in at the office of the Herald for submission to the city editor, Aquilla Chase, a son of the late General Daniel Chase and a cousin of Salmon P. Chase, secretary of the treasury under President Lincoln, stepped out onto Broadway at Herald square and shot himself in the heart. He died within a few minutes.

Chase was sixty years old. He had been ill and despondent for some time. In the papers which he left for publication he spoke bitterly of the fact that he had been unable to obtain employment in the government service. "Uncle Sam wanted me badly enough in war time," he said. "My father and myself fought for the Union, and three of my brothers died on the battlefield." He was employed as a carpenter in the Brooklyn navy yard until three months ago, when the force was reduced and he was dismissed. In concluding his obituary notice, he asked that a fund of some kind be started to provide for his widow.

Chase was a lineal descendant of Peregrine White, the first white child born in the party of pilgrims who came to America in the Mayflower. He was one of the youngest enlisted men in the Union army, having barely reached thirteen when he entered the Maine volunteers.

The suicide occurred when Broadway was crowded with shoppers and others. A crowd which gathered at the sound of the shot blocked the street and was finally dispersed by the police with difficulty.

RATE DISCRIMINATION.

Charged Against the Central Railroad Co., of Pennsylvania.

The Central Railroad company of Pennsylvania, operating a line between Bellefonte and Mill Hall, has been made defendant in a rate discrimination charge lodged with the Pennsylvania state railroad commission at Harrisburg. The case is of general interest because of the fact that it is the first outright charge of rate discrimination to be on file with the commission. The charges are preferred by the Nittany Lime and Stone company of Bellefonte. In its complaint it avers and declares that it expects to be able to prove that the general freight agent of the Central railroad is a stockholder and general manager of the Bellefonte Lime company, a competitor of the complaint, having quarries at the same place, near Salona.

Both companies ship their products over the Central railroad, and the complainant asserts that the Bellefonte Lime company, its competitor, enjoys cheaper freight rates than the Nittany company. The rates charged the complainant are also the subject of a complaint, being held excessive.

The Bellefonte company, says the complainant, settles for its freight charges at the general office of the railroad, their freight bills being marked "S. G. O.," which the complinant declares means "settle at the general office." The general freight agent of the company admitted, according to the compliantant, that it was not known what freight he paid upon his shipments from the Bellefonte company's quarries over his lines.

The rate complained of is 25 cents per ton for ballast shipped from Salona to Mill Hall, a distance of two miles, a rate that the company holds as subject to revocation at any time. The rate for the same service, says the complainant, was only 16 cents per ton in 1908. The present rate is declared to be practically prohibitive and far in excess of rates charged by other railroads. Moreover, as the rate may be changed at any time, the company is liable to be put to a loss by changes in fulfilling its contract. A lower rate, to remain unchanged for a year, is asked.

Crosses the Continent to wed heart's choice.

The Wellsboro Gazette tells the following interesting story of a romantic courtship and marriage:

Miss Josephine Mack, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mack, left last Thursday morning for Colorado where after a journey of 2 3000 miles she will marry the Rev. Samuel Johnson, a Presbyterian minister. Miss Mack who is a graduate of the Wellsboro High school, for more than two years has been pursuing evangelistic studies and work. She has been the pastor's assistant in the Methodist churches at Binghamton and Rochester N. Y., and for nearly two years did similar work in Chicago, all the while pursuing bible studies. It was while in Chicago that Miss Mack met her fiance. The Rev. Mr. Johnson's home is in Missouri and he was recently ordained and went to Colorado for rest and quiet and to pursue his studies but the call was so urgent for a pastor in a mining town of 3,500 near Colorado Springs that he accepted it. Rev. Johnson and Miss Mack had planned to marry in May, but owing to Mr. Johnson's sudden call to Colorado they were obliged to change their plans. Miss Mack started on her long trip alone. She received many beautiful wedding gifts from her Wellsboro friends.

Taft's Chair Breaks Down

The Presidential chair in the White House broke down Wednesday. Under the weight of President Taft's 240 pounds more or less, plus cares of State which have been pressing upon him more heavily than usual since March 4, the big oaken swivel chair behind his mahogany topped desk in the executive office gave way and the president extracted himself from the wreckage just in time to save himself from a bad tumble.

He was not hurt nor gravely shocked for, if the truth be told, Mr. Taft is no unaccustomed to such accidents. Chairs in general are not built in contemplation of carrying so much weight and he has at sundry times had sad experiences with them.

DuBois Girl Exposes "White Slave" Plot.

By one of the victims becoming conscience stricken the police department of DuBois Thursday uncovered a traffic in "white slaves" that apparently has been flourishing in that section for months.

Five young girls, all under 19 years of age were to have been the victims in the last deal, according to the story of Lula Bowers 18 years old, who was arrested by Chief Logan on board a train, bound for Fort Wayne Ind. The child was in company of the "agent." She was approached, she said, some days ago by Myrtle Boring, a former DuBois woman, and agreed to go with her to Fort Wayne.

According to statement made by the Powers girl to Mayor Scofield five other girls of her own age from that section are now in Fort Wayne, Pa.

The girl gave the names of those who were to accompany her on the trip and warrants charging them with incorrigibility were sworn out. The Bowers girl's story also posted the police on the moral condition in that city and developments are anxiously awaited.

—The comedy "A Race For a Widow" is said to be clean and elevating, with numerous character studies drawn from life, while there are many ludicrous situations and bright comedy from start to finish there is a blending of sentiment, with deft dramatic touches and a couple of thrills which make the play unusually interesting and extremely human. Post Office Robbed.

Monday morning, a Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin says: H. L. Batschlet, postmaster of DuBoistown, Sunday night reported to the Williamsport police the robbery of his home during the temporary absence of members of the family. The thieves make a good haul, securing over $200 in cash and $300 in postage stamps, ranging from one to ten cents, the latter being special delivery stamps.

The robbery was committed in the early evening, between dusk and 9 o'clock. The Batschlet family was in Williamsport during the forepart of the evening and returned to the residence in DuBoistown to find that the house had been entered, a window having been forced to gain admission to the house. Mr. Batschlet quickly discovered that the money and stamps he had placed in the house for safe keeping were gone.

Postmaster Batschlet has been in the habit of taking home the money and stamps from his office, preferring to have the valuables in his home to leaving them at the office. He takes them home in a box, and the money and stamps stolen Sunday evening were in this box, in a bureau drawer. The thief or thieves took box and contents and disturbed nothing else. From this it would appear that the theft was either planned or committed by some one thoroughly familiar, with the course pursued by the postmaster.

One Armed Men's Banquet.

Ex-Sheriff J. Harris Mussina gave a banquet at the Irvin House Lock, Haven Tuesday evening, March 23rd at which the guests were limited by fate to an unfortunate circumstance in the life of each of their number. In other words, a qualification was necessary to be one of the party around the festive board, which no man would voluntarily be a party to, and that he must have only one arm or hand. Through an accident several years ago Mr. Mussina lost his right arm, and he conceived the novel idea of having all the one-armed men in the city as his guests for an evening.

The bill introduced by Representative J Calvin Meyer extending the time one month for the payment of taxes so as to get the 5 per cent off passed the house finally, Thursday morning, unanimously, and the strange co-incidence lies in the fact that Representative Meyer happened to be in the chair at the time as speaker pro tem at the instance and request of Speaker Cox. Bitten by a Big Spider.

A short time ago when Mrs. Maude Story, of Sweden, Potter county, was preparing to retire she felt a sharp pain on her shoulder. In the morning after a very painful night the shoulder was found to be very badly swollen and a doctor was summoned who cauterized and dressed the wound. During the past week Mrs Story has been able to use her arm for the first time since she received the injury. Dr. Reese, of Costello, has been in constant attendance. A dark red spot about the size of a silver dollar still marks the place where she was bitten or stung by the spider.
